

The Medicare GLP-1 Bridge: A New Path to Weight Loss Medication

Starting July 1, 2026, the Medicare GLP-1 Bridge program provides nationwide access to specific weight-management medications for eligible patients with Part D coverage. This temporary program aims to treat obesity as a chronic disease by offering a flat-rate copayment for advanced treatments like Zepbound and Foundaro.

